DICTATOR RESIGNS AND FLEES FROM MEXICO; SUCCEEDED BY SENOR FRANCISCO CARBAJAL

HUERTA'S BLOODY REIGN ENDS AND RESTORAL OF PEACE IS NOW ASSURED

The destination of Huerta is not known but it is believed he will join his family at Puerto and sail for Europe on a Dutch ship.

Mexico City July 16–General Victoriano Huerta resigned from the provisional presidency of the Mexican republic last evening and his resignation was accepted by the Senate and Chamber of Deputies by a vote of 121 to 17.

Francisco Carbajal was then appointed president, and took the oath of the office at the joint session of the deputies and senators. Huerta's resignation was submitted through the department of foreign relations. It was read in the house and was greeted with cries of "Viva Huerta." it was then referred to the joint committees of Cobernacion. After brief consideration the committees reported, accepting the resignation.

After the acceptance of Huerta's resignation, a commission was appointed by the president of the chamber to escort Senor Carbajal to the floor of the Senate. Very soon Senor Carbajal appeared, passing through files of soldiers and as he walked to the platform the deputies stood. Speaker Manuel Mercado then administered the oath.

The new executive again passed through double files of troops as he proceeded to the national palace. The military band played the national hymn while the troops presented arms and rendered presidential honors.

Family of Huerta At Puerto

Vera Cruz, July 16. The family of General Huerta and Blanquet and relatives of the deposed dictator arrived at Puerto, Mexico, early today on the refugee train which left the capital on Tuesday night. They were accompanied by a guard of 1400 soldiers.

It was currently reported today that General Huerta was on board one of the special trains from the capital known to be on the way here. The British cruiser Bristol anchored near the pier in front of the station this morning and the German steamer, Dresden, was approaching the harbor.

English Are Pleased

London, Eng., July 16—General Huerta's resignation is regarded as a victory for President Wilson and is welcomed by the British public and in official circles here as a possible solution of the Mexican problem. A peaceful end to the complex situation is greatly desired here on account of the large British financial interests in the country. Most of the London newspapers, however, express doubt as to whether conditions will be better under Carranza's regime, than when General Huerta was in power in Mexico City.

The Evening Standard said:

"The Washington administration has won a diplomatic victory. President Wilson's persistent and patience in his policy of non-recognition of Gen. Huerta, but it is likely enough as will be met by oth r obstacles just as hard to surmount as was Gen. Huerta's obstinancy."

The Globe said:

"The elimination of General Huerta is a triumph for President Wilson, but it may be assumed that his difficulties and anxieties are by no means over."

PUTNAM CO. BANKING CO. CLOSES UP

Columbus, O., July 16—The Putnam County Banking Co., a state bank doing business at Ottawa, Putnam county, closed its doors today. This action followed a series of conferences which began here yesterday between officials of the banking company and Examiners Holmes and Hollington of the state banking department who had been sent to Ottawa. The bank is said to have $15,000 cash on deposit.

Whether the depositors will recover their money is not known.

ELK GOAT COMES BACK

Denver, Colo., July 16—The Benevolent Order of Elks today got their goat back. Members of small towns attending the grand lodge by a majority of 10 votes decided to change the ritual and by-laws of the organization that the time honored animal might be restored into favor as an agent of initiation.

JURY DRAWN FOR FRENCH TRIAL

Paris, France, July 16.—After the prologue to the latest tragic drama of France, President Albanal of the Seine Assizes, today ordered the drawing of the jury which will hear the evidence in the trial of Madame Henriette Caillaux, wife of the former minister of finance, on the charge of murder. The woman went to the office of the Le Figaro last March and, drawing a pistol from her muff, shot to death Gaston Calmette, editor of the paper, which had been conducting a vicious campaign against her husband.

Thirty-seven jurymen answered the summons today. President Albanal delivered a speech touching upon the case which the men will hear.

ED ODLE IS SLATED FOR RELEASE

Columbus, O., July 16.—Ed Odle, of Scioto county, will be released after September 13, if Governor Cox follows the recommendation of the state board of pardons of convicts made today. The recommendation is conditional to Odle's maintaining good company.

He was sentenced to serve an indeterminate term last September for receiving stolen property.

THE FLEEING DICTATOR

VICTORIANO HUERTA

TEXT OF GEN. HUERTA'S RESIGNATION

Mexico City, July 16.—The text of General Huerta's resignation is as follows:

"Deputies and Senators: Public necessity admitted by the Chamber of Deputies, by the Senate and Supreme Court, called me to the supreme magistrary of the republic. Later when in this small hall I had the honor of addressing you in compliance with the Constitutional precept, I promised at all cost to bring about peace.

"Seventeen months have passed and in that brief period of time I have sought in honor to carry out that solemn promise.

"You all know the immense difficulties which my government has encountered owing to a scarcity of funds as well as to the manifest and decided protection which a great power of this continent has afforded to the rebels so much so that when the revolution had been broken up, seeing that its chief leaders were and continued to be divided, the power in question sought pretext to intervene directly in the conflict and the result of this was the outrage committed at Vera Cruz by the American fleet.

"Success was had as you know in adjusting honorably through our delegates at Niagara Falls the petty Tampico incident, but the revolution continued with the support of whom we all know.

"Yet after the highly patriotic work achieved by our delegates at Niagara Falls there are still some who say that I, come what may, seek my personal interest and not that of the republic. And as I need to rebut this allegation with facts, I tender my formal resignation of the presidency of the republic.

"The national congress must know that the republic through its government has labored in entire good faith and with the fullest energy, having succeeding in doing away with the party which in the United States calls itself Democratic, and having shown how the right should be defended.

"To be more explicit, I will say that the action of the government of the republic during its short life has dealt death blows to an unjust power. Later on stronger workers will come, using implements that undoubtedly will end that power which has done so much harm and committed so many outrages on this continent.

"In conclusion I will say that I abandon the presidency of the republic carrying with me the highest sum of human wealth, for I declare that I have arraigned at the bar of universal conscience, the honor of a puritan, whom, I as a gentleman challenged to wrest from me that possession.

"May God bless you and me."

FEDERAL LEAGUE SCORES VICTORY

Chicago, July 16.—The Federal league scored its firts big legal victory in its war on organized baseball today when the appellate court held the ten days clause in the ball player's contract null and void. The ruling was given in a court action which reversed a superior court decision in enjoining Pitcher George N. Johnson, the Winnebago Indian, from playing with the Kansas City Federals. The injunction issued by Judge Foel in the superior court and served on Johnson while he was participating in a game here was granted at the request of the Cincinnati Nationalists.

Counsel for the Cincinnati club will file a petition for a rehearing. The decision affects the Hal Chase jump.

INDICTMENT IN CARMAN CASE DUE

Mineola, N. Y., July 16—The grand jury weighing the evidence against Mrs. Florence Carman, who is charged with the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey, who was shot down in Dr. Carman's office on the night of June 30th, were expected to vote for or against an indictment late this afternoon.

District Attorney Smith in so announcing today said that the verdict probably would not be made public until tomorrow. But three witnesses, Mr. Smith said, were to face the grand jury today with the possible exception of Mrs. Carman herself.

CONCESSIONS OR STRIKE

Chicago, July 16—Negotiations between the managers and the committee representing 55,000 engineers and firemen on 98 western railroads will be called off at once by the latter, unless the managers express a willingness to make some new concessions. This was the statement contained in a communication sent by the union committee and received by the managers early today.

Unless concessions are made it was believed here that a strike would be ordered to begin before the end of the week.

8 CHINESE SMUGGLERS ARRESTED

Philadelphia, July 16.—Eight Chinese, one a woman, who are illegally detained today at the Philadelphia immigration station pending an investigation, were arrested by government agents in Camden, N. J., Media, Pa., Lansdown, Pa., and in this city. Several of the Chinese, it is said, are believed to be material witnesses in connection with a smuggling case which originated in Saginaw, Mich.

CHARGES OF BOALT ARE DISPROVED

Washington, July 16—Charges against Ensign Wm. Richardson for alleged misuse of the law of flight at Vera Cruz made by Fred L. Boalt, newspaperman, were disapproved by the navy according to the findings of the naval board of inquiry. Admiral Badger advised the navy department this afternoon.

The Poindexter resolution calling upon congress for an investigation of the charges was passed by the senate.

EDITOR GORMAN DEAD

Steubenville, O., July 16.—Joseph Gorman, 35, Jefferson county Democratic leader and member of the liquor license commission, died here today. He was editor of the Steubenville Gazette.

RECOGNITION WILL BE GIVEN NEW REGIME IF FACTIONS CAN AGREE

Washington, July 16—The United States today instructed John R. Silliman, American consul at Saltillo, to inform General Carranza that if he arrives at a peaceful agreement with the Carbajal government for the transfer of power at Mexico City, recognition will be extended to the resultant administration.

Should Carranza refuse to complete the settlement of the internal conflict by diplomatic means, and insist on a forcible entry into Mexico City, recognition will be deferred until there is a legal election.

American forces, according to present plans will not be withdrawn from Vera Cruz until a peaceful settlement is agreed upon. This determination was reached by President Wilson and Secretary Bryan after the viewpoint of the South American mediators was received.

Under the terms of a protocol signed at Niagara Falls, the United States, Argentine, Brazil and Chile went on record promising recognition to the government set up by any agreement between the two Mexican factions. To vitalize that protocol the Washington government and the mediators now are bringing their efforts.

The first move towards affecting a transfer of government to the constitutionalists already has been taken by Provisional President Carbajal. The three peace commissioners on their way to confer with Carranza or his divisional commander, General Obregon, are thoroughly constitutionalists in their political belief and were conspicuous members of the Maderista party.

They also are close personal friends of Carranza. Carbajal has sent them to confer with the constitutionalist chief because he believes they can obtain satisfactory terms for the transition of the government.

Washington diplomats received messages from their legations at Mexico City today confirming the resignation of General Huerta. Minister Suarez of Chile, said it was his belief that Carbajal merely wanted guarantees that the lives and property of the people will be conserved through a general amnesty proclamation.

When that was arranged he believed a transition would be promptly effected. Rafael Zubaran and Luis Cabrera, two of Gen. Carranza's representatives here, said they were unaware what would be the next move, but said the sending of the Carbajal commission to confer with Carranza probably would have tangible results.

The only cloud on the horizon of peace in Mexico was the uncertainty about the attitude of Gen. Villa. Information from reliable sources was that he is concentrating his forces in Chihuahua and northern Mexico so as to make vigorous demands on Carranza. It was reported that when the convention of generals is called at Mexico City after Gen. Carranza enters there, Villa adherents may at once substitute another chief for Carranza. Constitutionalists with Carranza sympathy make no secret of the fact that they are apprehensive of what Villa will do.

Woman Who Killed Husband On Trial

New Haven, Conn., July 16. The neighborly relations of the families of James Plew and William O. Wakefield while both men were employed on a farm on Middlebury were described to the jury today at the second trial of Mrs. Bessie J. Wakefield, charged with the murder of her husband June, last year. Plew died upon the scaffold last March for the actual murder of Wakefield.

Dwight Wheeler, the farmer who employed both Plew and Wakefield, also told of the occasion when Mrs. Wakefield went to Waterbury. Wheeler went to Mrs. Wakefield and asked her again to live with her husband, but she gave as her excuse that he was "too dirty." On cross-examination Wheeler admitted that Mrs. Wakefield's reason was not surprising to him as he, the witness, thought that Wakefield was not the neatest man in the world. During the illness of the wife of Plew, Mrs. Wakefield acted as her nurse.

PRESIDENT STANDS PAT

Washington, July 16. Facing what appeared almost certain rejection of Thomas D. Jones as a member of the federal reserve board, President Wilson positively refused today to withdraw the nomination of Jones. He believes the opposition to Jones is found ed on misapprehension and he will be able to overcome it.

This here high cost o' beef business get my goat. # MAYOR LED HOPELESS FIGHT FOR DUMP AT POINT

Council Talks Long, Accomplishes Little

The magnetism which he says accompanied his efforts to secure a one-straight-across-bottoms road between the city and the West Side but which did not manifest itself until too late seemed to have again deserted Mayor Adam Frick at the city council meeting Wednesday night when he submitted a plan looking towards the restoration of the intersection of Second and Scioto streets at the Point.

The mayor had come to regard the situation at the point as an emergency and he himself hit upon a plan for filling the big opening caused by the washing out of the bridge during the 1913 flood and the slipping since. He would build a temporary roadway from the foot of Second street around to Scioto street, sufficient to permit teams to drive over and dump waste material. He suggested that all garbage and waste refuse of the West End be deposited in this opening, feeling sure that within a year or two the fill would be of such solidity as to permit the erection of a street over it and fostering the flood wall, to say nothing of permitting owners of private property to rebuild their places. To that end he asked council to allow the service department an appropriation of $100 for the purpose of a road.

Council frowned on the mayor's plan, refusing to take any favorable action, much as he urged the importance of the improvement, and despite his exhaustive reviews of the situation. Even the plea of Vice Mayor William E. Cook, who regarded the mayor's plan well worthy of earnest consideration, failed to arouse the members to action, and while the subject consumed the greater part of the evening's session, it was allowed to go by default.

Frank Schmank, councilman from the First ward, led the opposition to the mayor's plan. He was bitterly opposed to making any variance dump out of the Point, and declared it folly to think of repairing the flood wall and street intersection as anything but a firm foundation. He did not think tin cans and garbage would afford such a foundation.

The mayor was not present when his letter on the subject was read by Clerk George L. Gubleman. Mr. Schmank declared he heartily concurred in the mayor's views regarding the unsanitary and unsightly practice of throwing refuse over the flood wall, but felt it would be a waste of labor to throw refuse into the opening at the foot of Second street.

Member George M. Osborn moved that the mayor's letter be referred to the street committee and engineer for a report. Cries of both ayes and nays prompted Mr. Schmank to call for a division of the vote. It developed that Messrs. Gulker, Moeller, Schmank, Shamp and Westphal all voted against referring the mayor's letter, Messrs. Osborn and Wilson alone voting in support of it. "Rather discourteous to His Honor" smilingly commented Mr. Osborn.

The mayor arrived later and towards the close of the session, without having been advised of council's attitude in the matter, arose to address the body of his plan. He had hardly gotten under way when Mr. Gulker suggested that it was but fair that the city executive be informed of what action had already been taken. The clerk read from his minutes, but far from being disturbed, the mayor launched into an earnest address on what he felt was the city's duty to restore the Point. He told of having received a copy of resolutions passed by the county commissioners expressing the wish that the city restore the flood wall. This prompted him into making an inspection trip to the extreme West End. He was shocked to find that the city prison work game had run up against a snag in trying to cut the weeds on the river grade, for waste building material, such as discarded tin roofing and garbage had been dumped over the flood wall in such heaps as to make the work impossible. It occurred to him that this same refuse might be used to good advantage in filling the hole at the old bridge site. It would serve to fill or bind a fill there. Nothing could be more effective and it would restore the street there at the least possible cost.

It was at this juncture that Mr. Schmank arose to explain his attitude. He assured the mayor there was nothing personal in his opposition to his plan. He was guided solely by the views and sentiments of his constituents in the West End and his own views. He knew people in that section would oppose any plan to place a garbage dump at the point and as for himself he did not think it possible to build a retaining wall on top of a garbage dump.

Mayor Frick, unbalanced, held to the view that a garbage dump would make the best fill. He cited the North Chillicothe street dump which he had told the members of the flood. Mr. Schmank replied to this that thousands of tin cans, etc., were dumped over the Scioto river bank after the flood, but the dump was not a sign left of them now. The mayor thought the reason for this was that they probably were dumped directly into the stream.

Chairman Cook believed something should be done to restore the Point. His observations had convinced him that willows afforded good protection. The river never washes a bank that is dotted by willow trees.

Member Osborn declared he was not an engineer, but it occurred to him that if the city proceeded on a plan of building a wall to keep out the Scioto it would not stop until it reached the city hospital. He said the treacherous old stream had a certain knack of cutting behind walls and would continue to do so as long as it had the North End to contend with. He felt the only way one could effectively wall up the Point would be to extend a wing out from the foot of Third street and this would prove of tremendous expense. The member said it was not a matter of protecting the top of a fill, as much as it was the bottom, when it came to the Scioto.

The mayor said that the new bridge would be of a 62 foot flood level and that the piers were to be purposely placed in a position that will throw the current westward, or away from the city. Mr. Osborn was moved to remark that "God Almighty did not seem to care what county commissioners did or thought as for example, all bridges between Columbus and Portsmouth were washed out last year."

Member Shamp expressed a desire to hear from Consulting Engineer George Shute on the subject. Mr. Shute said he had visited the Point a few times, but was not prepared to make any definite report. From his own observations, decaying vegetable or animal matter was bad business at anytime and under all circumstances. Coal ashes, with cinders, such as cooling would do all right, but all garbage stuff, such as he came across he'd avoided. He said it would be important to have a man on the scene to see that the filling was properly done.

The mayor, plainly piqued at the indifference of the aldermen, now called on Mr. Schmank to give his own real views on what ought to be done to relieve the situation.

Mr. Schmank said that the property owners there were demanding a better way around Second and Scioto [illegible] were paying street assessments, although decidedly [illegible] he felt the city had an obligation to [illegible] He felt council had [illegible] time and again to do something.

The mayor asked the point: Did the best way of settling earth is with water, and he stood pat on his original plan. He had suggested with a view to [illegible] built as many bridges in Chillicothe, Ohio and he recalled of the plan successfully. This man, not [illegible] the builder of Piketon, which was the only one in the Scioto valley standing after the 1913 flood.

The mayor [illegible] to meet [illegible] in making up [illegible] of a committee. He would [illegible] the street [illegible] the bridge [illegible] Point [illegible] to [illegible] Gulker [illegible] Shamp [illegible] Moeller [illegible] Schmank [illegible] Wilson [illegible] Cook [illegible] Osborn [illegible] Westphal

Mayor Was Kept Busy With Marital Troubles Wives Get No Solace

That he was drunk the day he married her, that his wife is in good humor only three weeks of the year, and that he has had marital troubles for seventeen years, were some of the startling claims made in police court Thursday by George Blair, charged with non-support.

Blair, who is employed with the Interstate Transfer company, said his wife threw him out of their home on July 4th, and that she has all of their children turned against him, save his married daughter, Mrs. Ella Wise. He said he had left $3 weekly at the Interstate office for the support of his children, but that his wife refused to go or send after the money.

Mrs. Blair told the court that Blair had not kept the children supplied with clothes for five years, and that neighbors and friends had provided them with what little clothing they had. She had gotten but six dollars from him in six weeks. The mayor ordered Blair to set aside $5 per week for the support of his children, telling the wife that inasmuch as she no longer wanted him about their home, she would have to get the money herself by either calling at his place of employment or going after the money.

Martin Flack, whom his wife, Mrs. Rue Tatman-Flack, charged with disorderly conduct on July 3rd, claimed to be a victim of circumstances.

The woman, who is employed as a sideseeper at the home of Roy McElhaney, county clerk, after much questioning, practically admitted that relatives had induced her to file charges against her husband. Reference to the docket showed that Flack had pleaded guilty to a drunk charge on July 5th, and drawn a $5 fine and the mayor held he could not be tried again for this offense. She denied having caused his arrest then, saying she only wanted something done with him now for coming to her place of employment and threatening her life.

Flack told the court how he had written letter after letter to his wife, asking her to come to him at New Holland, O., how he had discovered a picture in her possession of a man he identified as Joe Weber, whom she took to her home in McDermott, in a buggy and introduced to relatives as her husband's cousin, and how they came to separate a year ago. The woman admitted having accompanied Weber, but said he did not make the trip for any wrong, or through any friendship for her, and, besides, she, herself, had paid for the use of the horse and buggy. "Boys, that's the kind of a girl to have," exclaimed the mayor, and the spectators broke into laughter.

Mrs. Flack vehemently denied she had appeared against Flack in order to strengthen her divorce case filed a week ago and said it was prompted only through fear that he would harm her when drinking, as he had threatened her life.

The mayor dismissed the case against Flack for lack of evidence and advised the woman what course to pursue if she wished to place him under a peace bond. As Flack had failed to pay up his recent fine he was assigned to the prison work gang.

The couple have been married seven years. The woman's first husband, Leonard Leslie, a former street car conductor, is located at Springfield. She gave him a good name, but said she left him because he was opposed to work and because she was unable to get along with his mother.

NEW BOSTON

Mrs. Nannie Counts, of Rhodes avenue, received a message recently from Morehead, Ky., conveying the sad news of the death of her father, James Barbour. She could not attend the funeral on account of ill-health.

The members of Anvil Lodge will hold their regular meeting Friday night and will initiate several candidates. Refreshments will follow the initiation and a large number of members are expected to be present.

Pete Hall, clerk at Mayor Sam Davis' grocery on Ohio avenue, almost severed his left thumb Wednesday while slicing meat.

Zelma Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Buel Davis, is visiting in Fullerton with her grandparents. Mrs. Davis went to Fullerton Thursday to be at the bedside of her aged mother, who has been seriously ill for several days.

A. W. Snyder, of Gallia pike, was taken suddenly ill with a serious attack of stomach trouble Wednesday evening and had to have the services of a physician. He was resting a little easier Thursday. Mr. Snyder is employed on the new Scioto river bridge.

Squire William McManees, of Ohio avenue, left Thursday morning for Ashland, Ky., on a day's business trip.

Roland Murray, who hails from Kentucky, dropped into the village Wednesday afternoon and overindulged in fire-water, going to the park to sleep off the jag. Park Policeman Jesse Gardner placed the stranger behind the bars of the village jail where he languished Thursday morning. His trial was set for Thursday afternoon.

Marshal Will I. Davis accompanied Officer Joe Stokley to Lakeside, Wednesday, where they located Mary Vermillion, a simple-minded girl from Marysville, who has been wanted by the police for several days. She will be sent to her father, who was unable to come after her.

The baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Burt, of Gallia pike, is slowly recovering from an attack of spinal meningitis.

The ware-room in the rear of O. D. China's grocery was moved Thursday by Contractor William Fremont, who completed the moving of the main store room Wednesday. Ground will be broken for the new structure in a few days.

Mayor J. S. Davis notified Superintendent J. T. Carey, of the N. & W., Thursday morning that the crossing at Ohio avenue would have to be repaired as the crossing is in a very bad condition. The ferry lands at the foot of Ohio avenue and the crossing is used more now than before. A siding near Ohio avenue is also in need of repairs.

The civil engineer of the steel plant was in consultation with village Engineer Sam Harper, Wednesday, to see about the new sewer that is being put in near the steel plant. The steel plant is figuring on laying pipes to connect with the village sewer and it was necessary to go over the plans with Engineer Harper.

G. M. Warder has opened a store in the old Cooper Bros.' grocery building on Gallia pike. He has a complete line of new stock, as his former stock was completely wiped out by the big fire three weeks ago.

Village Engineer Sam Harper is busy surveying Gallia pike from the bridge to Park avenue. Park avenue from Gallia pike to Rhodes avenue, and Rhodes avenue from Park avenue to West avenue, preparatory to the paving of these streets.

The Neudoerfer & Silcox auto delivery truck was stuck for nearly an hour on Gallia pike Thursday morning. One of the rear wheels sank hub deep and with a heavy load it was hard work to get the truck out. The hole that the wheel went into was filled last week after a leak in the water mains had been repaired near the west end of the Conley switch. The ruins of the past two days caused the dirt to settle.

ODDS AND ENDS

TODAY'S VERSE

The Motorcycle

Whene'er I seek my sweet repose
And would forget my woes,
My neighbor goes out for a ride.
He sits astride
One of those blamed infernal things
That toots and sings
And then cavorts
And sports
For half an hour
Before there's power
To push it down the street.
He pumps with both his feet
And then it pops
And pops and pops and pops
And stops.
Then he, the patiencst of men,
Must start again.
It sneezes
And it wheezes,
It bangs
And it clangs.
It coughs and it rumbles,
It growls and it grumbles,
And it shoots like the artillery.
Oh, Gee!
Finally it gets in motion,
Like a pop-boat on the ocean
It goes chugging, chugging, chugging,
On its way to grief and pain
And we go to sleep again.
Then we snooze about ten minutes
And he's back.
Alas, alack,
And he vainly tries to stop it
With a jerk,
But the dog-gone stopper some how
Will not work.
Then it snorts and pops and whezes,
And it coughs and spits and sneezes,
But he gets it stopped at dawn.
And he drags it o'er the lawn,
To many an earnest cuss,
As the neighbors fume and fuss.
Then we get to sleep at four
And we just begin to snore
When he gets it out once more.

"Mother", said little Tommy, returning from Sunday school, "I can't understand the text we had to study this morning. 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.' What does it mean?"

"Mother would rather you thought the matter out for yourself, dear. Think about it a while, then if you can't understand, come to me."

Half an hour later mother inquired:

"Do you understand what 'It is more blessed to give than to receive' means now, dear?"

"Yes, mother, I think so. The Bible must be speaking of castor oil."

Finding a Verdict

A trial took place recently in Texas before a colored jury. The twelve gentlemen of color were told by the judge to retire and "find a verdict."

They departed for the jury-room. Then began the opening and shutting of drawers, the slamming of doors, and other sounds of unusual commotion. Every one wondered what the trouble was.

At last the jury came back into the court and the foreman arose and said:

"We hab looked every whar, in the drawers and behind the do,' an' can't find no verdie'. It warn't in de room."

Jingle

To jingle on in merry song,
To us seems keen delight;
We jingle on the whole day long,
And jingle half the night;
And while our jingles jingle on
In rythm most complete,
We jingle when the jingle's gone,
To keep our jingly feet.

Disappointed

Here's sympathy for Mary Ann,
And all the other sisters
Who wanted comedy roasts of Ian
And only got big blisters.

Re-Captured

In great excitement a little East End girl came running to her mother crying almost incoherently:

"Oh, mama, a great big rat came out of the pantry and ran on the kitchen floor."

"Well, well, well," said the mother, "what became of it?"

Proudly the little girl replied: "I chased it right back in again."

"Soft"

A man who was taking an uneducated friend out to dinner told him before starting out, "When I introduce you to the ladies, say something soft to each." So to the first lady the friend said with an elegant smile, "Mashed potatoes." — London Telegraph.

Will Get A Third Hearing

Mayor Frick has granted George Pall, a Stockdam company chauffeur, fined for alleged speeding, another rehearing of his case and set the date for Tuesday, July 28th.

LOCAL DRUGGIST MAKES MANY FRIENDS

Wurster Bros., Druggists, 349 Chillicothe St., report they are making many friends through the QUICK benefit which Portsmouth people receive from the simple mixture of Buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-i-ka. This remedy became famous by curing appendicitis and it is the most thorough bowel cleanser known, acting on BOTH the lower and upper bowel. JUST ONE DOSE of Adler-i-ka relieves constipation and gas on the stomach almost IMMEDIATELY.

WOULD PUT BURDEN ON STATE.

The suggestion that the state take over mines or other business where there is a strike and operate the business until those interested in the strike become sane and order is restored, is about the silliest proposition or suggestion that we have ever heard. By such a plan the state would be shouldered by a multitude of responsibilities that would be foreign to its functions. The state is not supposed to be a commercial agent or a goat for enterprises that can not find a plan where it is possible to agree on operation. Such a plan would make the state a target for all sorts of ill-natters who would step from under to escape the inevitable. The law is sufficiently plain as to lawlessness and should be supplemented with a compulsory arbitration provision for the protection of the innocent public, if for nothing else in these labor differences.

If it is proper that the state take over a business for a time and operate it why not let the state take over all the business in the country and operate it as one big political machine and thus kill all the personal ambition and energy in this country? It is silly to think of. If a man violates the law, or a company its charter rights, prosecute them under the laws and do it promptly without fear or favor and inflict penalties that will be felt. A company can pay a fine but cannot be jailed, but the directing heads should be made to answer just the same as the lowliest individual. When these are made to pay the penalty, better conditions will prevail in this country, and the interests of the employed and the employer that are mutual under proper understanding will become real and in active force.

CONSULT THE WORKINGMAN.

The millenium will come and not before, when the administrations of this country, regardless of party, summon some poor working man to Washington and inquire of him how things are coming along in the orbit in which he revolves. How his six days or sometimes seven, of eight hours each and more of toilsome moments of sweat and brawn to provide "for Mary and the six," are bearing on him. Whether he is simply a number with a number like a convict of the pen, or is he a recognized human with an opportunity. Whether he is receiving a fair share of the profits that he produces. Whether he is the target or the victim of those who control the food supplies of the country who have so arranged it that the average cost of eatables is not governed by the crop report twenty-four hours after the harvest, and so on delve into the mode of living and the chance to live of this man who has no one but the government to protect him; this man who, when the life of the nation is threatened, is the man who is called upon to fight its battles and offer his life, a to necessary, on the altar of his country. His interests are greater and of more importance to this republic than those of the wealthy commercial man for there is more of this and the consumption of the worker most concerns the country and all are dependent on him. A study and inquiry into his condition will enable one to arrive at a more plausible understanding of the real conditions of affairs than one could hope to obtain from a man who has his eyes only on the profits to be acquired in a given business.

A LEADING QUESTION.

Before those ladies of the four hundred get through telling the public through the newspapers why they want to vote and how much they have done in establishing institutions some good woman who has spent most time in minister a long life and devoted her life to the home, should ask them how many thousands they have had and if the canaries and poodle dogs are more desirable than children.

JUGULAR VEIN WAS SEVERED

Alvin Besco, boilermaker helper employed at N. & W. terminals in East Portsmouth, had his jugular vein cut by a sliver of steel late Thursday afternoon. He was removed to Hempstead hospital in a very serious condition.

Besco was operating a boiler punch when a piece of steel caromed off the rivet and struck his throat with sufficient force to sever jugular vein. Besco, whose home is in Sciotoville and who boards on Eighth street lost a great amount of blood and may die from the injury.

Sciotoville Is To Have Drug Store

Sciotoville is to have a drug store.

The A. L. McGinnis Drug company of Cincinnati, have leased the north half of the new Theodore Shamp building in Sciotoville and expect to be ready for business by the first of September. The building is located on Jackson street near the street car and is in an ideal location. A dry goods and grocery firm is flickering for the other half of the building, but a deal has not yet been closed.

RIVER WORK MAY STOP ON ACCOUNT OF FUNDS

Washington, July 16.—On account of lack of funds work is now suspended, or will shortly be suspended, on about one-third of the works provided for in the pending river and harbor bill. Should no act be passed at this session the number of works suspended will be very considerably increased before an act could be passed at the next session of Congress.

The war department reports that it finds itself face to face with the necessity of curtailing operation or suspending work on various phases of the Ohio river improvement as follows:

Dam 39 Hired labor, work must suspend July 31.

Ohio river Hired dredges must be released September 1.

Dams No. 12, 11, 19 and 20 Contracts for movable parts must be deferred.

Dam 15 Work suspended, incomplete state, January 1.

Dam 26 Work to be suspended September 1.

Dam 28 Work to be suspended August 1.

Dams 21 and 22 Work cannot be started.

Dam 43 Work will be suspended September 30.

The Successful Man

MORE than nine times out of ten you will find that the successful man began his success by first being a prudent man. He early learned the value of saving and began putting his surplus in bank. There is character and force about the man who has money in bank. He begets confidence in himself and confidence and credit from the community. He becomes recognized as safe and dependable. Opportunities begin to come his way and having some means he is the better able to profit by them.

The first step towards success is saving. We want to help you in that step and we offer you the security and facilities of our bank. One dollar will open a savings account and we allow interest on all savings deposits and compound the interest.

TERMINALS

Ralph Higgins, who has been employed at the Y. M. C. A. for over a year and half has resigned his position and will leave in a few days on a camping trip near his home in Chillicothe.

E. F. Rideout, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and family, will leave Friday for Lake Geneva, Wis., for a several week's visit. Miss Jetta Adams, deaconess, will accompany the Rideout family on their trip. A stop will be made in Chicago where Miss Adams has relatives.

George Brueh, chief clerk to Trainmaster D. F. Peters, left Thursday morning on a two week's vacation. He will spend most of his vacation in Ferguson, W. Va., with friends, and will later go to Cincinnati for a visit. Oscar Seth is filling Mr. Brueh's place. Robert B. McCorkle, stenographer, is working for Mr. Seth.

Engine 1384, the seventh one of the big Mallet engines, arrived at the local yards Thursday morning.

A notice was posted Thursday morning that the N. & W. employes of the machine shop, blacksmith shop, and boiler shop would not work Saturday, July 18th.

Mrs. T. C. Holder of Newton, Ohio, was visiting friends in this city Thursday.

Harry Porter, who is on night turn in the Y. M. C. A. store room is off duty on a two week's vacation which he intends to spend at Lake Geneva, Wis. Corna Duffy of the day force will fill Mr. Porter's place. J. S. Lockett will have complete charge of the store room during the day. J. H. Barris is the regular night store keeper.

F. B. Osborne, of the Y. M. C. A., returned Wednesday evening from Ironton where he visited his wife who is in the Keller hospital. She was operated upon several days ago and is getting along as well as could be expected.

Superintendent J. T. Carey of the Scioto Division, issued a notice Wednesday prohibiting passengers from alighting from trains when a stop is made at the B. & O. crossing near Gallia street. It has been the custom for employees to leave the trains at this point for sometime and passengers are now attempting to follow, which makes the practice extremely dangerous. Engine and train crews will be permitted to leave the trains at this point as usual.

The ghost walked for the employees of the Y. M. C. A. Thursday, they always receiving their checks a day after the regular N. & W. pay day.

James Horn, fireman on N. & W. engine 746 had his legs badly scalded Wednesday by steam from a hose which he was using to sprinkle the coal in the tender. The hose in some unknown manner swung around and the steam caught Horn before he could escape. He was taken to his home at Clare, Ohio.

William Cook of 1219 Eleventh street is off duty on account of a fractured foot that he received while at work in the N. & W. roundhouse, Saturday.

Auto Glided Off Road Into Ravine

Losing control of his machine as he was going over the temporary road near Sciotaville, W. G. McCorkle of Charleston, ran his machine down into a ditch and three hours were consumed in righting the machine. Luckily the car did not overturn, as Mr. McCorkle was accompanied by his family.

Employees of the Prichard garage went to McCorkle's rescue and they had a strenuous time in pulling the machine back on the road. One fender was damaged and the glass in a lamp was broken, which represent the sum total of the damage to the big automobile. The machine landed at the foot of a small ravine.

Married By Squire Byron

Thursday afternoon Richard W. Sally and Lena Swords tripped to the altar of Squire J. W. Byron and were united in marriage. The groom is 20 years of age and employed as fireman on the N. & W. The bride is only 16 years of age, but secured the consent of her parents to the marriage.

ENLARGING C. & O. YARDS AT RUSSELL

Ironton, O., July 16—A force of about three hundred men began the work of enlarging the C. & O. yards at Russell, Ky., Wednesday morning, and the work will be rushed to completion, it has been announced.

The first work was begun on the lower end of the yard, across the river from Hanging Rock, and the length of each track will be extended about eight hundred feet, so that the entire extension will be quite considerable and the work enormous.

Just when the work will be completed is not known by the C. & O. officials, but it will be hurriedly completed as the track facilities at Russell are not nearly sufficient to take care of the traffic.

QUICK SERVICE

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Otway, Ohio.—Dear Miss Wise—Please tell me through the Times how to rid my house and barn of fleas?

A COUNTRY READER.

Catch the fleas, then pour gasoline on 'em and set fire to 'em.

Buena Vista, O.—Miss Dolly Wise,—What should I do to take an ice cream stain out of a suit? Is my writing, spelling and pronunciation good?

"HAPPY."

Benzine will take it out in a jiffy, Happy. Your writing and spelling is O. K., but I can't pass upon your pronunciation from here. You will have to come up and let me hear you read or recite, whichever you care to do.

Dear Dolly.—My husband and I would like to secure a little girl about nine or ten years old. We could give such a girl a good home in return for washing the dishes and assisting with the housework. I do not like to wash dishes myself, and I cannot afford to keep a hired girl. A little girl that age is just what I want. Please inform me where I can get one? MRS. M. R.

I sincerely hope you will never find a little girl to wash your dishes and do all the drudgery about your house. Why don't you do those things yourself? Don't be lazy. If you have good health work for two about a house would be a snap for you. A little girl should not be made to wash dishes and work all the time. She should be allowed to play out of doors and get a good start towards strength and physical development. To be sure it won't hurt a little girl that age to help her mother once in awhile, because mother would know just how much the little child could stand, and would not tax her strength. If you want your dishes washed hire some older person to do it, by all means, and don't make a slave out of any little child.

New Boston, O., July 15.—Dear Dolly.—Will you please tell me how to avoid excessive blushing?

VILLAGE DAMSEL.

My dear girl you ought to be glad to blush, but whatever you do, don't blush out loud. Natural blushing will prevent the using of rouge that so many silly girls use to make artificial blushes.

Buena Vista, O.—Miss Dolly Wise.—How is the best and surest way to tell whether a girl loves you or not?

ANXIOUS BOY.

Ask her.

Dear Dolly.—Could you give me a recipe for removing tan and freckles? I have tried lemon juice and buttermilk but neither will do any good. I would like to have a good complexion.

BLANCHE.

Why worry in this day of fresh air treatment and scorn of tan and sunburn, over a little bronze and a few freckles, Blanche?

Keep your body in perfect condition; live and joy in the open air; bathe regularly and freely; get plenty of healthful, natural sleep; eschew pickles and candy as articles of daily diet; let rich pastries alone, and the complexion will take care of itself, by and by, if not now.

Dear Miss Wise.—Is there any place in Portsmouth I could purchase an actor's "make-up" box, if not, where is the nearest place I could send for one?

"AMATEUR."

If you can't get what you want at a drug store or book store, you can get the address of a firm who handles theatrical supplies out of the back of the "Billboard". You can get this book at any news stand.

Stout, O., July 15.—Dear Dollie.—To settle a dispute, will you please answer this question: When the rainfall is one inch, how many barrels of water will fall on a acre of land, allowing 40 gallon to the barrel?

HANK AND JAKE.

This is a pretty "stout" question, I'll admit. According to my way of figuring 13,450 barrels would fall to an acre. There are 4,973,960 square inches in an acre and there are 92.42 square inches to the gallon, which would make 538,211 gallons of water to the acre. This reduced to barrels of 40 gallons each would give 13,450 barrels of water to the acre. The next time it rains out there get out your tape line and keep tab on the rain drops.

Dear Dolly.—Please give me a good recipe for baking light bread with yeast foam yeast, also give me a recipe for baking an apple sauce cake.

KENTUCKY WIFE.

Bread made with yeast foam is made just the same as with Fleischmann's yeast. I haven't any recipe for apple sauce cake, but I have one called Apple Cake. This is made like a baking powder biscuit dough, but richer and with the addition of a small amount of sugar. Mix it very soft, and pat it, not roll it, in a thin sheet to fit the pan. Peel, core and cut in thin sections tart, quick cooking apples. Press them on the dough in close, overlapping rows, dust them thick with sugar, and a little cinnamon and bake in a moderate oven.

SOCIETY

An outing which will not be forgotten for some time was the one enjoyed by the ladies of Section No. 3 of the Women's Union of the First Christian church Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Chas. Racy. From there they went to the picnic grounds, where the president, Mrs. Williams, took charge of the regular meeting, after which the women, as well as the children, enjoyed playing games and having a good time together. ## MRS. BEIDEL TELLS WOMEN

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Kept Her in Health for 14 Years.

Shippensburg, Pa.—"It was several years ago that I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I then suffered terribly every month. My husband bought me a bottle of it and it helped me right away. Then after my second child was born I had a female trouble very badly and I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and in a short time was cured and have been in excellent health since. I always praise the Compound whenever I have an opportunity as I know it helped me and will help others. Lately I have given the Compound to my daughter and I wish all suffering women would take it and be convinced of its worth." —Mrs. JAMES A. BEIDEL, 113 N. Penn Street, Shippensburg, Pa.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

Spo-Pe, Liberated After 33 Years, and A Girl Friend He Made in Washington

This is old Spo-Pe, Blackfoot, who for thirty-five years has been imprisoned with the criminal insane at St. Elizabeths. He has just been pardoned by President Wilson and now he is on his way to the reservation of his tribe in northwestern Montana, along the Canadian line. So overjoyed was Spo-Pe at his liberation despite the fact there was a question if he was guilty of any crime that he insisted on having his photograph taken with Evelyn Finch, daughter of the pardon attorney of the Department of Justice, who worked to free him.

More than thirty-five years ago a troop of United States cavalry killed his mother, his father, and a score of his people. Spo-Pe took a vow that he would kill a white man so the souls of his people could rest in peace in the happy hunting ground. There was nothing personal about it, but the carrying out of a sort of religious vow. When the Indian was taken to St. Elizabeths as being insane he refused to talk and tried to make himself understood by the sign language. That convinced the authorities he was insane.

About a year ago a party of Sioux visited the asylum and established the identity of Spo-Pe. His case was brought to the attention of the authorities and it was discovered that he was not insane. Indian Commissioner Cato Sells interested himself, with the result that President Wilson pardoned the old Indian.

HUERTA ARRIVES

Vera Cruz, Mexico, July 16—General Huerta and his party reached Orizaba safely this afternoon.

STRUCK BY A BUCKET, KNOCKED UNCONSCIOUS

Dominic Delewisi, aged 21, a foreigner, employed by A. J. Martin & Co., was knocked unconscious and was severely cut about the face and limbs when a bucket of dirt fell on him at the new county bridge site Thursday afternoon. Fellow workmen carried him to the brick tenement house at the Point where Dr. Locke attended him. It was found his injuries were not of a serious nature.

ONCE SALOON—NOW TEA ROOM

"Hush little saloon, don't you cry,

"You'll be a tea room bye and bye."

L. E. Smith, proprietor of the Kanawha Hotel in Charleston and who formerly ran the Washington Hotel here has opened a beautiful tea room in the room of his hotel where wet goods were sold until West Virginia entered the prohibition column. Mr. Smith has equipped it in royal style and it is a popular place, according to local people, who have inspected it.

Munson Is Scout

Friends of Fred Munson, former catcher for Portsmouth will be pleased to learn that he is now enacting the role of a scout for the Cleveland American league team. Munson is on the lookout for minor league talent and he will search all the smaller leagues for promising material. Mrs. Munson joined her husband in the Forest City, Thursday.

NO WARRANT ISSUED IN EXCURSION CASE

Miss Carrie Evans, who met with a thrilling experience while on a local ferryboat Tuesday night was better Thursday, but she has not fully recovered from the effects of the attempted assault alleged to have been committed by a man named Davis of Fullerton.

No arrest has been made in the case as Davis it is said is missing. No warrant has been issued here and Squire Braden of Fullerton stated Thursday that no warrant had been issued from his court.

Miss Evans made an unsuccessful attempt to make an appointment with Attorney Wm. R. Sprague Thursday. Mrs. William Wilson with whom Miss Evans boards stated to The Times Thursday that Miss Evans has always borne an excellent reputation. Her relatives at Olive Hill have been notified of the sensational affair and they will probably insist on the prosecution of the young man, whom Miss Evans claims attacked her.

Davis, it should be explained, had no connection with the ferryboat, Peerless, and was a passenger on the boat like any other excursionist. The management of the boat make every effort to maintain order and treat everyone right and they deeply deplore any trouble that may occur. A special officer will be engaged in the future to patrol the boat and preserve order at all times.

Friends of the young man accused stand by him and doubt the story of the girl as to the alleged assault.

SALOONISTS WILL MEET

Saloon men of Portsmouth will hold a special meeting Friday afternoon to collect and approve the anti-prohibition petitions they have been circulating and to consider other matters of general interest to the traffic.

VICTIM GETS TREATMENT

Russell Elliott, six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Elliott who was bitten on the arm by a mad dog several days ago, is taking the Pasteur treatment from Dr. H. F. Rapp of the West Side. A fine horse belonging to Smith Krull, which was also bitten by the same dog, was successfully treated by Dr. Joseph Gill.

Resumes Trips

The packet Klondike, which was laid up Wednesday for minor repairs, resumed her place in the Portsmouth Rome trade Thursday afternoon.

Chemical Co. Denies It Causes Smells, Explains Methods

In connection with recent investigation by the board of health Mr. F. B. Winter of the Portsmouth Chemical company, has given out the following interview:

"It is probably not generally known that there is located just at the southwestern edge of the city a modern and up-to-date rendering plant, where the offal from the local butchers and slaughtering houses and the dead animals, (horses, cows, hogs, dogs, etc.), collected from both the city and country districts, also from the adjacent Kentucky territory, are converted into greases of various qualities used in the manufacture of high grade soaps and the residium, recovered after the grease is extracted, commonly known as animal tankage, forms the basis for commercial fertilizers of highest quality.

"The building housing the complex machinery used in making the above products is of fire proof construction, being built of vitrified brick, concrete stone and steel.

"The tanks into which the refuse matter is placed for the process of extracting the fat are of the latest type, equipped with the most modern device for taking care of any odors that might arise, and the fumes from cooking and drying are drawn from the air tight tank, by means of vacuum pumps, and forced through tight fitting tubes into the fire box under the large boiler and thus consumed at a temperature of about three thousand degrees.

"The motto or slogan of this institution is not, 'Safety First,' but 'Sanitation First.'

"No institution or enterprise in this city should be shown more support and encouragement than this, the Portsmouth Chemical company, for it is most obvious that a distinct and necessary service is being rendered this community, and its usefulness should appeal to all who believe in a Greater and Better Portsmouth. It aims to work in harmony with the several local authorities in charge of sanitation and hygiene.

"Visitors may inspect the plant by obtaining a pass from the office."

From the foregoing interview it would appear that any unseemly smells arising in the North End are not emanating from the plant of the Portsmouth Chemical company.

The Movies

The Exhibit

It isn't often that the management of a moving picture theatre can give its patrons a double feature in one night. But that is just what Manager Law, of the Exhibit, is doing tonight. In addition to that much prized picture, "The Perils of Pauline," he has secured a two-reel feature, "The Rose-bush of Memories." The latter is a pretty little story of romance involving the sacred rose-bush of an old gardener. A young couple during their courtship often visit the old gardener, when they receive a rose off his sacred bush. Later they are married and are given the bush. But a cloud descends over the happy relations of the couple. They quarrel and separate. Later that same rose-bush is the cause of their reconciliation.

"The Perils of Pauline" needs no endorsement. Those who have seen it always await anxiously the arrival of the next installment. Those who have not seen them are missing something worth while in a moving picture way. Each installment is a story in itself.

Mary Fuller At Lyric Today

"A Terror of the Night," the fourth "Dolly" story, is a dandy. It has a great big punch to it, and Mary Fuller supersedes her audience with a particularly clever bit of acting. You will enjoy this picture and the second picture is a good western story, "Brought To Justice," a well balanced picture and well acted. The Movies of the Kids will be shown again tonight.

"The Fatal Wedding" is here tomorrow and don't miss it, it is really a great picture from start to finish. One of those top-notch productions that never disappoint. The admission will be 10 cents for adults and 5 cents for the children.

The Lyric has another masterful picture booked for next Monday called "The Great Leap" or "Till Death Do Us Part." It is in four parts and conceded one of the finest and most sensational pictures of the year. At the Moving Picture Men's Convention recently this was the picture that received the greatest applause, so it must be something very good as on an occasion like this the producers always show their best.

At The Scenic

"The Price of Treachery" in five big reels, 5000 feet of film, is the feature for the Scenic tonight only. It is a thrilling story of life on the high seas and is filled with scenes that will hold one spell bound. A jolly rook also adds a bit of humor to the story which is one of the best ever shown at the popular summer theatre.

It is a story of love and interview pictures a raging storm culminating in the blowing up of a large sailing vessel carrying a cargo of explosives, also the thrilling rescue of the captain and crook, the only survivors of the wreck.

It is a picture that you can't afford to miss. The prices have been slightly advanced for this large bill. Don't fail to see it.

Big Picture at Columbia Today

In "Judith of Bethulia" at the Columbia today, you will see without any doubt the greatest four-reel picture ever seen in Portsmouth; it is a complete reproduction of Thomas Bailey Aldrich's great story of Judea and is presented by a company especially selected, headed by that beautiful actress, Miss Blanche Sweet.

Bethulia is a fortified town of Judea, guarding a hill pass through which an invading Assyrian army must march in order to enter Judea; in this town lived Judith, a devout young woman of lofty character and remarkable beauty; when the place is stormed by a large army. The fighting from the gates brings into action a large number of soldiers on both sides; one desperate assault after another is repelled, scaling ladders are thrown down, great rocks are showered upon the invaders and the wonder is that they keep at it; the feminine sweetness and shyness of the lovely Judith are intensified by her advances and retreats in her efforts to save her people.

This is a remarkable picture that will thrill you from beginning to end; most gorgeous costumes and delightful acting cannot help but appeal to all; if you wish to see one of the greatest pictures ever shown in Portsmouth don't miss this real masterpiece in motion pictures at the Columbia today. Adults 10 cents, children under twelve, 5 cents.

PROBLEM NOW IS TO INDUCE CARRANZA TO JOIN IN PEACE PLAN

Mexico City, July 16—Though it was stated at the National Palace today that Huerta's destination was unknown to officials there, it was generally understood that he was on his way to Puerto, Mexico, to board the Dutch cruiser, Kortenaer.

No credence was given to reports that Huerta and Blanquet had gone to Puebla to rally about them the troops still loyal and there fight to the death against the rebels.

Members of the diplomatic corps believe that he will go to Europe and there pass the remainder of his days.

President Carbajal has taken office with a pledge to do his utmost to restore peace in Mexico and "facilitate re-establishment of friendly relations with the United States." Whether he will be successful depends upon the revolutionists.

Many Madero leaders have already given their endorsement to Carbajal as provisional president. They will urge Gen. Carranza to co-operate with him for a cessation of hostilities throughout the republic but the success of their efforts are doubtful.

There are strong fears among the foreigners that the federal forces left without the iron hand that guided them in the futile efforts to halt the rushes of the constitutionalist forces southward will commit excesses that will shock the civilized world.

The resignation of Huerta was brought about by many months of patient work by members of the diplomatic corps here.

The retirement of the dictator was the first step. The next will be to induce Carranza to deal amicably with Carbajal for the establishment of a government that will hold office until an election can be held.

For this they rely mainly upon the United States.

All foreigners were advised today to keep off the streets as far as possible. Within the last two days many messages have been exchanged between the capital and the fleet commanders at Vera Cruz. In these preparations were made for sending an international force of marines here in case such action became necessary.

It was to facilitate the bringing of marines to this city, if such action were found necessary, that the diplomats secured Huerta's order to repair the railroad line where it was broken west of Vera Cruz.

Work on these repairs are already under way.

GENERAL AQUILAR IS EXPECTED TO MARCH ON CITY OF MEXICO

By W. J. Maddox, staff correspondent of the International News Service.)

Washington, July 16—Administration officials today were jubilant over Gen. Huerta's retirement from power in Mexico City. Even the White House to the general President Wilson's supporters claimed credit for having forced the dictator out.

While no assurance was given that the change in the Mexican capital would bring about a speedy adjustment of the international difficulties in the republic it is assumed that the constitutionalist forces soon would be in control of the city and take steps to institute reforms.

In revolutionist circles it was stated that Gen. Carranza expected Gen. Aguilar at the head of the first constitutional troops in the state of Vera Cruz to the outskirts of the capital to occupy the city as soon as its defense is removed.

Aguilar is only twelve hours by rail from the capital and well equipped to maintain or advance there when he gets in sight. He is an educated man, of the best type found in the rebel ranks and has permitted no butchery or miscellaneous killing by troops under his command.

Dainty Pest of the Wild.

No animal is more finicky or more luxurious in its habits than the weasel. It steals the freshest eggs, selects the tenderest chickens of the brood and will sometimes kill several for a single meal, sucking the warm blood and eating only a small bit of the flesh.

Pezold Was In Lineup

Third Baseman Pezold, who was with Ironton long enough to learn that the fans of that city were quitters, played third for Cleveland Wednesday. He cracked out a double. Four former Ohio States were in the line-up, Southworth, Nixon, Kahler and Pezold.

Mashed Foot

C. S. Moore, an express messenger on N. & W. passenger trains 23 and 24 had a foot mashed between a box on the mondier Tuesday night. He is now laid up here in Cincinnati as a result of the accident.

The MERRY SIDE OF LIFE

BY JOSEPH WALLACE

"HERE'S a story about a sixty-eight year old woman marrying a youth of twenty-three," I remarked to Trixie today, while a new customer at the first table chuckled with delight at discovering his small steak hiding behind a mealy potato on his plate.

"What do you think of that?"

"What do you put it up to me for?" Trixie rejoined. "Just because I'm a lady it ought to be living in the line house take out a marriage license for the first time. If you want me to explain it? I have all I can do explaining to Tricie Jr. every night when he comes home from school with all the questions he's been asking about the Panama Canal and the Balkan States and the Mexican crisis and the Chinese Famine in his head."

"I know a girl what put the wrong tonic on her crowning glory one night, and so out. Just saw the word and we'll date somebody to marry us." Of course, she's got the swellest hair you ever saw, a day over twenty-five."

See that long drink of water at the second table wearing a plaid suede just because he found a real oyster in the stew?

"Well, to make a long story longer still, the boss gave a swell racket not long ago, and this fellow was right on the job, and when you get through stenk up that little blonde with the new black suit what you of the church fields of it, and next at the jean get anywhere for 8:80. I'll tell you something. There were any number of swell girls at the dance, including myself. But this fellow was all eyes for the Boss' sister, a Certain Party what will never see fifty again, even though she lives a thousand years.

"He hung around for like a hoe, and remember there were sixteen girls and only three fellows at the party. She told me herself that he wrote a bushel of poems about her lovely orbs and called her up five times a day on the telephone. One night they dropped into a movie show, and right in the middle of the act, when the hero was reeling off a live spiel, this bird brink of water whispered loud enough to be heard on the street, 'Dearie, you are the light of my life, and I hope you never go out. Just say the word and we'll date

"When they were married not long afterward, and the Boss came to life with a scrap at Olneo. He gave her away, first at the altar, when he refused to take off his new overcoat for fear somebody would walk out with it, and then at the supper afterward, when he told her right age to a Certain Party in this restaurant, who flashed it all around the town. Wifey came in here about a month ago and handed out a solemn say what would take a wooden Indian for saying that the Boss's love was growing cold."

"And it was not long before he was discovered paying attentions to a girl visitor enough to be his daughter. She's a peach, and I guess he gave her a heart to heart talk with one beauty advice, and now if they swear off fifty-year-old bosom women they don't look

SOCIAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Miller have named their infant son William C., after its "dad."

Mr. and Mrs. Elza Newman entertained last evening at their home on Gallia street in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Miller, of Dayton, Ky., who are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Tamula. Other guests were Mr. E. Chapman, Misses Lourdia Bennett and Alma Davis. Music was rendered by Mrs. Davis, who is hard to beat. She sings and plays beautifully. ### Go To Chicago

Cecil Cullip, well known local showworker, has gone to Chicago to accept a fine factory position under F. M. Gyman, formerly of this city. Several others have also gone to the Windy City to take positions.

THEATRICAL

"The Wolf" A Big Hit

The Casino Players at Millbrook park scored another triumph with their second presentation of Eugene Walter's gripping play of the north-west, "The Wolf." The company deserves much credit for their admirable work. The scenery and electrical effects are beautiful—one would almost imagine they were up in that grand country.

The play is such a distinct hit that at the end of the performance round after round of applause peals through the auditorium.

Don't fail to see this wonderful play. The company has been strengthened by the addition of Mr. Walter Curtis, a popular member of last year's company.

The usual matinees Thursday and Saturday. Next week, "When the Tide Turns," and followed by "Paid In Full."

Grand Encampment Now Thing Of Past

Not a patch of canvas was left in York Park Thursday morning, the entire tent colony of the Odd Fellows having entirely disappeared. With the departure of the visiting Odd Fellows late Wednesday evening and Thursday morning the annual encampment of the Ohio Odd Fellows was brought to a close, pronounced as the most successful in the history of this prospering and growing fraternal order.

While the important business sessions were brought to a close Wednesday noon, the ladies' auxiliary held an interesting session Thursday night at the I. O. O. F. hall. Grand Central Rebekah Lodge No. 699 of Columbus conferred the Rebekah degree on a class of eighteen candidates.

A number of the state officers were present and attended the ritualistic work. Following the exemplification of the ritual by the degree team in an exceptionally impressive manner, members of the Portsmouth Lodge of Rebekah served refreshments. Thus a successful and eventful encampment was brought to an auspicious close and all the delegates caught early trains for their respective homes.

Much praise was bestowed on the local Odd Fellows for the excellent manner in which they handled the convention. Their reception and entertainment of the visitors was a delight to the delegates and the success of the convention is attributed to the attention to details by the Portsmouth Odd Fellows.

Thin People Can Increase Weight

Thin men and women who would like to increase their weight with 10 or 15 pounds of healthy "stay there" fat should try eating a little Sargol with their meals for a while and note results. Here is a good test worth trying. First weigh yourself and measure yourself. Then take Sargol—one tablet with every meal—for two weeks. Then weigh and measure again. It isn't a question of how you look or feel or what your friends say and think. The scales and the tape measure will tell their own story, and most any thin man or woman can easily add from five to eight pounds in the first fourteen days by following this simple direction. And best of all, the new flesh stays put.

Sargol does not of itself make fat, but mixing with your food, it turns the fats, sugars and starches of what you have eaten into rich, ripe fat-producing nourishment for the tissues and blood—prepares it in an easily assimilated form which the blood can readily accept. All this nourishment now passes from your body as waste. But Sargol stops the waste and does it quickly and makes the fat producing contents of the very same meals you are eating now develop pounds and pounds of healthy flesh between your skin and bones. Sargol is safe, pleasant, efficient and inexpensive. Fisher & Streich and other leading druggists in Portsmouth and vicinity sell it in large boxes—forty tablets to a package—on a guarantee of weight increase or money back.

Aged Veteran Caused Great Excitement

Unable to find a place to pillow his head John Dossie, who claims he fought with the Rebels in the war of the sixties, created considerable excitement in the vicinity of Sixth and Glover streets Wednesday evening, by insisting on entering several homes. He was driven away from them by the owners, who feared that Dossie, gray in years and bent with age, was suffering with dementia.

A ferry call was sent to the police station and soon Sergeant James Marshall and Officer Andy Leslie were upon the scene and they took charge of Dossie. He was taken to the police station, where he spent the night. After being breakfasted Thursday morning Dossie, who is past 70, was given his freedom. He says he meant no harm and was only looking for a place to rest his weary bones.

On Annual Visit

Herbert Defenbacher, who is connected with the state industrial department, arrived in the city Wednesday and will be here two or three weeks, during his stay he will check up the water works plant and city hospital. Mr. Defenbacher just recently visited Marietta in a similar capacity. He has been connected with this department of the state for many years and makes a host of friends wherever he goes.

The Charm of Success And Perfect Manhood

There are two great classes of men, those who are successful and the ones who fail. Many factors determine the class into which a given individual may fall, but chief among these is health. The successful man has maintained a healthy brain in a healthy body. Lack of health has been robbed of this, his birthright, often through ignorance and indiscretion.

Scantily Attired Girls Found In Cottonwoods

Ashland Runaways Arrested Wednesday Held For Parents

Two scantily clad girls, Dovie Parker, aged 16, and Florence Ward, aged 15, who ran away from their homes in Ashland, Ky., just a week ago today were picked up by the police Wednesday night at 10 o'clock. They were found sleeping in the open at the Cottonwoods just west of the city and which skirt the Ohio river for a quarter of a mile. They were placed in custody by Chief McCarty, Officer Grant Cooper and Sergeant James Marshall and were taken to the police station, where they are held pending the arrival of relatives.

Grover Estep of 1205 Front street and Charles Martin of 543 Front street were with the girls when arrested. They claim they occupied a tent to themselves and told such a straightforward story that Chief McCarty permitted them to go to their homes. They appeared in police court Thursday morning and told Chief McCarty how they met the runaway girls and that they advised them to return to their homes at once. Dovie Parker broke down and wept bitterly when placed in the city service wagon last night. Florence Ward, the younger one of the two stepped blithely into the auto patrol. She wore a man's woolen shirt, short sleeved and buttonless. She had on but one skirt and wore no stockings. She told the police that she borrowed the shirt from a friend until her washing was returned to her. The Parker girl wore a gray skirt and a silk waist. She cried practically all night according to the police and begged the officials to notify her relatives.

"We just got romantic, that is all there is to it," said Florence Ward as her feet dangled over the side of a cot she was occupying in the women's ward of the police station Thursday morning.

"Don't you get tired of your surroundings here?" a Times man asked the Ward girl, who was not unconcerned about the notoriety the escapade would bring her and the Parker girl.

"We just got tired of slaving for other people, didn't we Dovie," said the Ward girl as she looked out of the window of her cell that overlooks the Ohio river. "Let me tell you the whole story of our trip," said the Ward girl who was inclined to reveal every feature of their tramp along the Ohio river.

"Last Thursday we left Ashland for Coal Grove, where we attended a revival meeting. We missed the last trip of the ferryboat. Presently a man with a hack came along and he put us across the river. Early the next morning we boarded the Greenwood and came to Portsmouth. Since then we have been sleeping where we could find a place. Several nights we just kept on walking as we could not find any place to go to sleep. I don't know how we ever got to the Cottonwoods. We have good homes in Ashland and have no complaint to make about our treatment. We just wanted to run around and see things. That's all there is to it. We haven't committed murder or stole anything. We are just a couple of runaways ain't we," said the Ward girl as she stepped over to the Parker girl and pleaded with her not to cry.

The Ward girl is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Ward, who reside on Prospect street in Ashland. She said she had sisters and brothers, who had always treated her kindly. Until recently she was employed in the home of J. E. Sloan of Ashland.

The Parker girl, tall and willowy, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hack Parker, who live at Webbville near Ashland. The girls admitted to Chief McCarty that they simply yielded to an impulse to do something romantic and adventurous and that they had no trouble at home.

"Why we had no idea of pulling off a crazy stunt like this until we missed the last trip of the ferryboat at Ashland," said the Ward girl Thursday morning.

"Then we made up our minds to enjoy a week's outing in the rough and believe me it has been pretty rocky at times ain't it Dovie," said the Ward girl, who looked upon the jaunt as a real lark and one that was a glorified round of pleasure. The pair of runaways have real attractive features and despite their shabby attire are rather good looking. They told Chief McCarty that wandering around aimlessly, broke and with all your clothes on your back was not the life that they had vividly painted in their minds while working for some one else.

Chief McCarty is in touch with relatives of the girls and they will be down after them probably tonight.

"Well, take it from me, Dad will have to bring me some clothes before I will go back to Ashland," said the Ward girl as she ruefully glanced at her bare legs, the loose fitting camp shirt that she wore and a skirt that just barely covered her knees.

"Yes and here, too," chimed in the Parker girl. "And to think we ain't had a bite to eat since Tuesday morning," said the Ward girl as she inquired as to when breakfast would be served.

Joyful Anticipation of Motherhood

It is apt to be a latent apprehension which serves to mar the complete joy of expectation. But this is quite overcome by the advice of so many women to use Mother's Friend. This is an external application designed to lubricate the parts and to thus so relieve the pressure on the nerves, that the usual strain upon the cords and ligaments is accompanied by those severe pains to cause nausea, morning sickness and many local distresses. This preparation is known to a multitude of women as a wonderful help to them in their hour of trial. Many people believe that these remedies have stood the test of time, that they can not be equalled under the various conditions of age, weight, general health, etc., may be safely relied upon. Many women talk about and gladly testify to the fact that "Mother's Friend" is in continual use since grandmother's earlier years and is recommended by the United States Pharmacopoeia. Any druggist will tell you that it is sometimes ordered by physicians. Many women talk about and gladly recommend it to prospective mothers.

"Mother's Friend" is prepared only in our laboratory and is sold by druggists everywhere. Ask for a bottle to-day and write for a special book for expectant mothers. Address: Bradfield Regulator Co., 147 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

BARTON WALTERS WAS IN THE CITY

Attorney Barton Walters, of Piedeville, was in Portsmouth Thursday on business and incidentally was looking after the interests of his father, Judge Preston Walters, who is a candidate for re-election as judge of the court of appeals. Judge Walters has served two terms on the old circuit court with credit and distinction to himself and his constituency. His candidacy was endorsed sometime ago by a large majority of the Scioto county bar.

Denver is royally entertaining the Elks. Special trains are pouring into the city by the coach load. Elaborate preparations have been made for their entertainment and comfort. A barbecue will be held at which over 100,000 antlers will be fed.

BUSINESS IMPROVING NORFOLK & WESTERN

"Business along the various divisions of the N. & W. is picking up steadily and we will soon be back to normal conditions," said Supt. J. T. Carey, general superintendent of this division of the N. & W., Thursday.

"Business has been on the increase not by leaps and bounds, but by a steady growth and the outlook so far as the N. & W. is concerned looks much brighter than it did a few months ago. Of course there is still room for improvement but general freight shipments are heavier and coal shipments are on the increase, so we really have no complaint to make," concluded Mr Carey, who always looks for the sunshine instead of the clouds.

Trainmen Ordered To Remove Effects

Ironton, O., July 16—C. & O. employees at Russell were notified Wednesday morning that all personal property on engines such as whistles, etc., must be removed, and hereafter an engineer will not be able to have his personal whistle.

The company, in a bulletin posted at the C. & O. offices and yard rooms declared that the action was rendered necessary because of the fact that a suit was entered against the company a short time ago at Paintsville, Ky., by an engineer, who claimed that someone had stolen his whistle from his engine. Although the engineers hate to part company with their little personal properties that individualized their engines, they have begun to comply with the order and within a day or so all the little personal belongings of train employees, now attached to the trains, will be discarded.

WELLER LOST OUT IN GREAT PITCHER'S DUEL

Senators Beat Locals By Score Of 1 To 0, Thompson Was Bear

Charleston, W. Va., July 15—In the opener of a baseball war that has been on in Charleston ever since it was announced by the Senators from the last-minute Kanawhans, it was a contest replete with sensational play and one that compares well with anything this side of major league ball. But one run was scored during the game and that was made by Manager Bruce, who walked, was advanced on a wild pitch and crossed the fourth base on Lewis' out to Bruce. Single hit also made that.

It was in the second inning, and with one in it Weller was hit by batted ball. Johnny Beever was batted out of the diamond after he was down to the second.

It was Thompson's first appearance on the home lot as a member of the club and from the start he showed that he was master of the situation. In the first inning he struck out three batters in succession, and in the fifth he retired the side in order. Weller was the only man to reach first base after the second inning, when he was forced out by Bruce.

The support given Weller was of the best. Not a misplay was made and the only misplay to be charged to the Senators was that of Nolan in the little center exhibition.

Bruce was the only batter to get a hit off Weller, and Bruce was also the only batter to get a hit off Thompson. Bruce's hit was a single to left field.

Although it did not appear in the box score, Weller was hit by the batted ball in the second inning. The ball struck him on the left leg.

EXPERT WRITER SAYS BILLY SOUTHWORTH IS SECOND TY COBB

Ed Bang writes in the Cleveland News, the new manager to get credit Billy Southworth, recent manager of the Portsmouth team in the Ohio State league.

Southworth, and Tyrus Raymond Cobb, thanks are due for a couple of days. A statement with all the facts in the matter at Boston park in the Cleveland-Boston game Wednesday afternoon, and Southworth, Cleveland's American league manager, is exposed as a fraud of a week.

The 1st Southworth's work has been a revelation to those who have watched baseball for the past few years. He is the same Billy Southworth who managed the Portsmouth team in the Ohio State league.

Like Cobb, when the Georgia Peach had a regular job managing the Detroit team in 1905, and was unable to get the world's championship, Southworth is producing with the world's championship in sight

President Read Will Look Into Situation, May Save Blue Sox

Huntington, W. Va., July 16.—"It looks as if assistance will be essential to the continuance of Huntington in organized baseball. I am coming to Huntington next Tuesday to do what I can to get representative men to pledge the few hundred dollars needed to finish the season. Dr. Stern tells me that a check, a due one, has been made on the proposition but that it has not been backed up.

"I would not be truthful in saying that the life of the league depends entirely upon Huntington. I will say that I think that there are plenty of people in Huntington who do not want it to drop before Charleston or travel the route taken by Ironton.

"The season has about sixty days to run. The Huntington treasury is about depleted, though fortunately outstanding bills are not numerous. The players were paid up until the first of July. I can say honestly that the club is by far better shape than many over the country.

"It is just a question of whether the citizens, say fifty or a hundred, will line up back of Messrs. Don Miller, Dan Holt and Fred Hawkins to see the team through.

"There is need of a whirlwind finish in the campaign started. Huntington is too grand a town to stagger at this stage of the game."

That the Local Ohio State baseball situation is becoming acute is evidenced by the fact that President B. W. Read, of Columbus, will be here next week to help revive spirit and try to carry on a whirlwind campaign that will put the local management on safer footing so far as financial troubles are concerned. President Read does not think that Huntington's retaining of the franchise is necessary to the life of the league. But he thinks that this city is too large to suffer the same fate as Ironton.

President Read will endeavor to raise funds among the business men to help stem the tide of the stormy financial seas. There has been already $400 raised, but this falls short $700 of what is really needed for the remaining 60 days season.

Among the directors there were no further developments yesterday. Dr. Stern said yesterday that nothing had been done in the way of forfeiting the franchise. He said the team will remain playing on the local lot again he would say nothing.

President G. D. Miller, of the Huntington Blue Sox, sent word yesterday that he would not be in the city to help the directors solve the problem. He is spending his vacation in Duxbury, Mass., and will not return before the latter part of the month.

However, it is thought that he has sent instructions to the men at the head of the situation here.

Until President Read arrives in the city next Tuesday nothing will be done. It is expected that he will decide the matter definitely.

STAGE IS SET FOR BIG HEAVY-WEIGHT FIGHT IN LONDON; BOTH CONFIDENT

(By Herbert Temple)

London, Eng., July 16—An epoch in the history of the British prize ring will be marked tonight by the 20-round fight between Gunboat Smith, foremost of the American "white hopes," and Georges Carpentier, of France, white middleweight and heavy-weight champion of Europe.

It was predicted by Dick Burge, the promoter of the combat, that probably 20,000 persons will see the fight.

Among those who will watch the Yankees exchange punches with his French antagonist will be representatives of every walk of life.

A member of the Royal family will witness the contest, incognito, from one of the ring-side boxes. Interest in the field among women is greater than ever before, and probably more than 2,000 of the fair sex will look upon a spectacle which hitherto has been held unfit for their eyes.

In betting circles some wagers were made at even money and others were made with the Frenchmen a slight favorite.

"I am going to set a pace which I believe will lead to a knockout. Then I am out to beat Jack Johnson."—George Carpentier.

"I am confident that I will be able to knock him out. I believe I can stand more punishment than he can and I am going to go a furious pace during the first ten rounds to wear him down. I will then be able to get him with my right and finish him. I am in the best physical condition of my life."—Gunboat Smith.

Says Men Are All Alike.

In the Woman's Home Companion appeared the story of a coquette in which the coquette gives the following advice to her cousin: "Don't make the stupid mistake thousands of women make. Don't! Every woman thinks her husband is different. But, trust a worldly woman, my dear, of much experience, men are all alike. They tire of what they know is entirely their own. The thing a man should never lose sight in that his wife is attractive to other men as well as to himself."

No More Gambling, Mayor Opposes It

Mayor Adam Frick has decided to put an end to any and all forms of gambling in the city.

The mayor on Thursday morning directed Chief McCarty to instruct his patrolmen to enforce the laws and arrest anyone guilty of gambling. He declared that pool played under the arrangement whereby the loser pays for the entire game is gambling. He places a similar interpretation in instances where the loser pays for all at a shooting gallery. In cases where goods are sold, chance tickets are given and the sale completed and the lucky holder gets the prize, the mayor maintains also comes with in the scope of gambling.

Cottonwood Girls Up Before Mayor

Dovey Parker and Florence Ward, the Kentucky girls caught in a fishing camp at the Cottonwoods, were tried on loitering charges then used as witnesses against Grover Estep and Charles Martin by Mayor Frick Thursday morning.

The girls told of having been staying at the camp of a junkman named Nichols and wife for two days. They accidentally encountered the young men. When they returned to the Nichols camp Mrs. Nichols talked "short" to them and leaving behind such of their clothes as they had washed during the afternoon prepared to sleep in the willows when they met the boys again. The boys offered them the use of their camp, giving up their bed while they expected to sleep on the ground. They said they retired while the boys were out looking after their release.

The giddy manner of the girls on the witness stand and the knowledge that they have been roving about the fishing camps among total strangers together with the fact that the boys could easily have escorted them back to the city or gotten word to the police caused the court to regard the latter guilty of harboring the runaways for immoral purposes and he decided to hold them and to commit the girls to the juvenile court.

Later when he realized that the girls were eager to return to their homes and that it would be a useless expense to commit them to some state institution he decided to turn them over to the Ward girl's brother when he calls again. The young men were ordered to go after the girl's clothes after which they too were given their trot lines.

A Local Artist Breaks Into Life

Honors continue to pile up for Portsmouth boys.

Early training received in the River City by Will Rannells has borne golden fruit. Mr. Rannells has the title page drawing of Life this week. It is a hard matter to get a humorous illustration in Life not to mention the front page so Mr. Rannells should feel highly elated over his success. He formerly resided on Eighth street near Findlay and his friends will be pleased to learn of his advancement in the field of art.

The picture drawn by Rannells shows a bull dog wearing a hat of the latest design and His Bull Dogship is equipped with a monocle. It makes a dandy title page for the Highbrow number of Life.

Forecast

Unsettled over upper Ohio valley tonight and Friday, with probably scattered showers. River will rise slowly tonight and be about stationary Friday.

H. C. DONNALLY,
River Observer.

The heavy rains throughout the valley have caused a general rise in the Ohio river. There was also a very heavy rainfall at the head waters of the Great Kanawha. The stage here Thursday morning was 4.7 feet and rising. Friday's packet departures: Up Str. Greenwood for Pomeroy at noon, Str. Bay Queen for Huntington at 3 p. m.; down Str. Greendale for Cincinnati at noon, Str. Greendale for Cincinnati at noon, Str. Klondike for Rome at 3 p. m.

The rise has started the packet companies to start out their big steamers again. The rise, however, is not expected to be sufficient for resumption of navigation by coal boats out of Pittsburg.

Creation Pictures At Grand Opera House

The moving pictures at the Grand Opera House will run until next Tuesday night. They are still drawing good houses in spite of hot weather. The description of Daniel's dream of Four Beasts by the phanograph orator is a marvel of clearness, making it as plain a child can understand. The Boy Jesus at 12 years confusing the D. D.'s is a fine picture. The miracles, the last supper, the agony of Jesus, His betrayal, and finally His crucifixion are portrayals so expressive that none could misunderstand. The Grand Finale, scheduled for Tuesday, when Dr. F. A. Hall of Indianapolis, will speak both afternoon and night. The doctor is a very impressive speaker and uses very forceful language. His afternoon subject will be "Pastor Russell's Teachings Examined," and all will want to hear this so they may know more of this much misrepresented doctrine. The night subject will be "Christ's Second Coming. How, Why, When." All is free.

MEXICO

Carjabal Has Delicate Task

Mexico City, July 16—The bloody rein of Gen. Huerta is at an end and today a commission is enroute to Celaya, there to endeavor to arrange for the peaceful entrance of the constitutionalists into the capital.

Francisco Carjabal, the new provisional president, today faced the delicate task of pleasing a dozen different factions, of forming a provisional cabinet and preserving peace in the capital until the constitutionalists assume control.

Mexico City has passed the crisis without rioting and bloodshed, but it is said peace is far from being assured.

The whereabouts of General Huerta are not known today. He and Gen. Blanquet left, via automobile, during the night. Whether they are bound for Puerto or Salina Cruz is not known. Many believe the two generals will join their families at Puerto, Mexico. The capital was quiet today but there was an undercurrent of excitement following the dictator's flight.

Defection Of Troops Expected

Washington, July 16—Brigadier General Funston at Vera Cruz in a dispatch to the war department today made no mention of Huerta's resignation, but expressed the belief that in connection with the dictator's resignation there would be defection from his troops on guard along the railroad and that the deserters would come to Vera Cruz.

It was explained at the war department that no effort will be made to keep such soldiers out of the city.

Villa And Bell Confer

Juarez, Mexico, July 16—The conference held at midnight on the International bridge between Gen. Villa, rebel commander, and Gen. Bell of the U. S. army, is believed today to have an important bearing on the situation in Mexico. Although neither Bell nor Villa would discuss the meeting, it was reported it was held by direction of the Washington authorities.

Huerta's Train Reported Lost

Vera Cruz, July 16—The train bearing General Huerta and Gen. Blanquet is lost so far as officials of the Mexican railway are concerned. Five hours after that train was due at Orizaba it had not arrived there. Various possibilities were advanced as to the delay of the train. One was that the train might have been attacked and captured.

The mystery of what became of the train was momentarily increasing. Despite the retirement of Huerta, he is still a field marshal and one of the highest army officers in Mexico. The belief was expressed that he might have gone to Oaxaca to head a revolt to be started in the interest of Felix Diaz. As the commanding officer of the federal army he might be able to attract much of the federal forces to his army.

Americans Must Keep Out Of It

Washington, July 16—Secretary Garrison today telegraphed Brigadier General Bliss, commander of the American troops on the border ordering American officers to refrain from participating from any meeting or conferences with Mexicans.

DROWNED WOMAN

Winthrop, Mass., July 16—The body of a well-dressed, unidentified woman was found on Winthrop beach early today. It is supposed she came to Winthrop, or to the beach, in the night, drowned herself, and was left upon the beach by the receding tide. The police, however, believe they have a murder mystery to solve and point out that a woman always will remove some garment before trying to drown herself.

FIREMEN ARE OVERCOME

New York, July 16—Fifteen firemen were overcome by smoke in a fire that destroyed three yachts and did $200,000 damage in the New York Yacht Launch and Engine Company Ship Yards on the Harlem river early today. Policemen had difficulty in saving about a hundred horses after the fire reached a nearby stable.

PRESIDENT INDISPOSED

Washington, July 16—President Wilson is suffering from an attack of indigestion and had to cancel all his engagements today.

He did not visit the executive offices and remained in bed under the care of Dr. Cary T. Grayson. His trouble is not regarded as serious, however, and it is expected he will be able to resume his work tomorrow.

CHRONOLOGY OF HUERTA'S RULE IN WARRING MEXICO

February 18, 1913—President Francisco I. Madero arrested. Assassinated two hours later. Huerta proclaimed provisional president.

February 19, 1913—General Venustiano Carranza proclaims himself president of the republic. In the following weeks President Wilson brings pressure to bear to force Huerta's eviction.

October 26, 1913—Huerta calls general elections and is re-elected.

November 3, 1913—President Wilson, through Charge d'Affairs O'Shaughnessy demands Huerta's resignation.

April 10, 1914—Part of American marines landed at Tampico. Insulted and jailed by Mexicans.

April 21, 1914—Huerta, refusing to salute American flag, American battleships sent to Vera Cruz and landed forces. Seventeen American sailors killed.

April 1914—Torreon and Monterey captured by Villa, after stubborn battles.

April, 1914—John Lind quits Vera Cruz.

May 2, 1914—Charge O'Shaughnessy given passports by Huerta.

May 7, 1914—Mazatlan surrenders to rebel forces.

May 10, 1914 Saltillo and Puebla evacuated by Huerta.

May 21, 1914—A. B. C. conferees go to Niagara Falls.

June 23, 1914—Zacatecas captured by Villa.

All during June many reports and denials of breaks between Carranza and Villa.

July 2, 1914—A. B. C. mediators adjourn. Urge selection of government satisfactory to both factions, which meant the elumination of Huerta.

July 15.—Huerta resigns as provisional president.

WAR WILL CONTINUE DECLARES GEN. VILLA, OPPOSED TO CARBAJAL

(By John W. Roberts)

Juarez, Mexico, July 16.—"The resignation of Huerta and the naming of Carbajal as his successor will not stay the war," said General Villa, when his attention was called to an extra announcing the change of administration in Mexico City.

"Carbajal is a Scientifico and his presidency will simply mean the continuance in power of the men who for fifty years have grown rich upon the misfortunes of the poor of Mexico.

"Carbajal won't do. I have not heard from General Carranza today, but I know how he and the Constitutionalist leaders stand on this question.

"We must make our victory complete. My men are now getting ready for the advance and Huerta's resignation will not stop them. I think you will find that Huerta intends to take the field. As I said to you last night the war has just begun."

Men close in the confidence of Gen. Villa declared today that the issue between Villa and Carranza would remain open until after the taking of Mexico City. He has emphazied his demand that the peons, whom he champions, shall not be "cheated" out of the fruits of the revolution.

It was hinted that Villa would be prepared for a new war and till the provisional government to be formed in Mexico City by the constitutionalist chief should actually begin the distribution of the lands and the payment of soldiers' pensions.

In addition Villa has demanded a free public school system.

BEEF INVESTIGATION HASTENED

Washington, July 16—Letters and telegrams of protest pouring into the department of agriculture about the extraordinary advance of beef will hasten an investigation of the high cost of beef.

The meat situation has reached such a serious problem that Secretary Houston declines to discuss the matter until the probing committee's report has been made. An investigation has been conducted quietly for the past six months.

Sheriffs Stoned By Miners Who Escape

Steubenville, O., July 16—True to the promise they made to Sheriff Huseroft yesterday 200 or 300 striking miners today marched down from the hills where they camped last night, to the mines at Bradley and attempted to drive off the pumpmen. The sheriff with a small party of deputies resisted the advance and a number of shots were fired but none of the attacking party were hurt. Bricks and stones rained on the deputies and Deputy Lucas was seriously injured. Sheriff Huseroft finally drove off the men and no trouble is expected.

Gen. Carranza Will Meet Peace Envoys

Saltillo, Mexico, July 16—Gen. Carranza is willing to meet representatives of Provisional President Carbajal and accept from them the range of government, but at the first intimation that efforts are being made to delay the final triumph of the revolution he will order the capture of the capital. No dickering, no treachery, will be tolerated.

This position of the first chief of the constitutionalists was made plain by his supporters today when they learned that Jesus Urieta, Enrique Mangel and Jose Novelo Maderista, deputies, had left the capital supposedly to bring to Carranza proposals for the peaceful entry of the constitutionalists into the capital.

According to information sent to Carranza by his agents, General Huerta carried with him from Mexico City drafts on Paris banks to the amount of $6,000,000.

AUTOISTS HAD TROUBLE ON TEMPORARY ROAD

Attorney Henry L. Hanson is one man who carries strength with the saying and asserts that the work of paving the Chillicothe pike is [illegible] Mr. Hanson had a little personal experience Wednesday evening that made him [illegible] haste in passing. While traveling at a [illegible] mile an hour the temporary road [illegible] Mr. Hanson [illegible] to the [illegible] Mr. Hanson [illegible] Wednesday, have ordered the contractor in charge of the pike work to make haste with the work. They have been on the job since April and the work is only about one-half done.

WASHINGTON DISTURBED

Washington, July 16.—War department officials were disturbed by a long code message received early today from General Funston at Vera Cruz. When the cablegram was read over the phone to General Witherspoon, chief of staff, he ordered that the dispatch under no circumstances be made public. This set afloat at the department a report that General Funston has been advised of a new menacing situation as the result of Mexico City developments and asked the department for instructions.

One official suggested that in the absence of a pledge from Carranza to protect lives and property General Funston has reason to fear for the safety [illegible] foreigners.

San Franciscan to Be Ambassador to Russia

President Wilson has sent to the Senate the name of George T. Marye as ambassador to Russia. He was originally considered for ambassador to France, but the President decided that the French place should go to Congressman William G. Sharp, of Ohio.

Mr. Marye was born in Baltimore in 1856. For several seasons he has maintained a home in Washington. He is a retired stock broker, who at one time was president of the San Francisco Stock Exchange. His father took him west in the early days of the gold rush. Mr. Marye was educated in Cambridge, England; Paris, Berlin, and Barcelona, with the original intention of practicing law, and was admitted to the bar. Although he abandoned his profession for business, he retained his interest in scholarship, and for one term served as regent of the University of California.

DAVID MARKS ILL

Panama, July 16.—David Marks, American member of the Panama joint land commission, is not expected to recover from an attack of cerebral hemorrhage and paralysis of the right side from which he suffered during yesterday's session. He became unconscious and was removed to a hospital where his condition is serious.

Claims Breach Of Contract

Suit was commenced in common pleas court Thursday by John W. Hammock against Samuel McFerren to recover $500, alleged due on a breach of contract. Hammock claims that he entered into contract with McFerren to remodel his house at 1811 Eighth street and claims that McFerren failed to live up to his contract. Attorney Theo K. Funk is Hammock's counsel.

Frederick McAdden, aged citizen of 1011 Offnere street, continues critically ill.

Secretary of Labor Wilson Jumping Over Fence At White House Grounds After Cabinet Meeting

William B. Wilson, secretary of labor in President Wilson's cabinet, is still a Democrat, as the photograph shows. Aristocrats don't jump fences of any kind to say nothing of the sacred ones about the White House grounds.

Mr. Wilson had been to a cabinet meeting, and he was in a hurry to reach his office. He rushed to the gate from the grounds and found it closed. Of course, there were other gates and many of them were open. The secretary of labor hadn't flown and he dropped on his feet have run around to one of them, without a jar or a sound, as did the other members of the cabinet who found the gates closed. But why should he?

Mr. Wilson is an athlete despite his years. He doesn't play golf nor tennis, but he keeps himself in condition, and when the moment came to jump over the iron pickets from the White House grounds he did it with ease. Many another man might have ripped something as he went over, but the secretary of labor didn't; he was as light as a fawn and he dropped on his feet as if he had been doing it all his life.

WILL RUSH MARINES TO MEXICO CITY IN CASE OF NECESSITY

Washington, July 16—American marines from the British, German and other warships at Vera Cruz will be rushed to Mexico City to protect the capital from the looting and rioting elements following the abdication of Huerta and join in a commission having for its purpose the pacification of Mexico without further bloodshed.

Secretary Bryan did not receive official confirmation of the report until late last night. A statement was issued from the White House saying that Huerta had given up the dictatorship.

Henderson Loses Horse

L. H. Henderson of Nile[illegible] is sustaining the loss of a horse which died Wednesday night. He refused $175 for the animal only Monday.
